Restrictions

Bees, plants, seeds must be accompanied by a health certificate countersigned by the Argentine Consul.

Observations

- Argentine customs legislation stipulates that in all cases the addressee must be present to authorize the opening, checking, and customs clearance of packages. To expedite the examination of such packages, the sender should write in a suitable place on the customs Declaration, the phrase "Peutetre Ouvert D' Office" (May Be Opened Officially), followed by his signature.
- Each commercial shipment must be accompanied by a consular invoice in duplicate. These invoices must include a declaration signed by the seller or his representative reading: "I declare under oath that all the information given in this invoice is true and the prices indicated are those that actually have been paid (or will have to be paid). I also declare that no arrangements have been made that would make possible any alterations in these prices."

The following articles do not require consular invoices:

- Books, reviews, newspapers, printed papers and scientific and literary periodicals, on condition that no import duty is payable.
- New or used effects or articles imported for noncommercial purposes or not of a saleable nature or value, intended for personal use or consumption and which, by reason of their quantity or type, give no grounds for thinking that they are intended for sale, and which do not exceed the value above which import duty would have to be paid.
- Goods in transit for other countries.
- Samples without saleable value (unused).
- Brochures, posters, printed papers, diaries, almanacs, negatives, photographs, films and other miscellaneous publicity articles advertising foreign goods or concerns, which are marked to prohibit their free sale.
- Spare parts and accessories for supplying or repairing foreign ships or aircraft in Argentina, if these are considered indispensable for continuing the journey.
- Customs, properties and other belongings of visiting theatrical companies.
- Goods returned to Argentina after definitive or temporary export unless a return invoice was explicitly requested when authorization for temporary export was granted.
- Educational equipment or materials intended for schools or scientific research institutes, whether as purchases, gifts, loans or technical or financial aid, on condition that the Argentine Ministry for Foreign Affairs and Religion gives permission beforehand.

- Used linen and clothing must be accompanied by a certificate of disinfection issued by a competent authority in the country
