Observations

1. Import licenses are required for many types of goods. Therefore, senders should ascertain from the addressee before mailing whether the necessary documents are held.
2. Licenses are not required for bona fide gifts not exceeding R 200 (Rand) in value.
3. The postal administration of Namibia does not deliver mail to street addresses. Therefore, all mailpieces sent to that country must be addressed to a private post office box. This condition of mailing applies to Express Mail International shipments, registered and unregistered letter packages, printed matter items, small packets, and insured and uninsured parcels that are sent to Namibia.

Country Conditions for MailingNew Zealand
(Includes Cook Islands and Niue)*Prohibitions (130)

Bank notes, coins, and other forms of currency are prohibited in all classes of mail, including registered First-Class Mail International items, insured parcels, and Express Mail International shipments, that are sent to New Zealand. Radioactive materials.

Restrictions

Addressees are required to obtain import licenses from the New Zealand customs authorities for all shipments except the following:

Bona fide gifts not exceeding 100 New Zealand dollars in value. Firearms require the addressee has police permission. Meat or meat products and fish and fish products are admitted only conditionally. Merchandise for the addressee's personal use, not for his or her business or professional use or for sale or trade, and not exceeding 20 New Zealand dollars in value. Used clothing and used bedding must be for personal use of persons in New Zealand, or with permission of the New Zealand Minister of Customs. Worn out clothing not for personal use must be clean and disinfected, or it will be done at the addressee's expense.

Observations

- Each commercial shipment must be covered by a commercial invoice showing the current domestic price of the goods (that is, what the price would be if sold in the United States) and the selling price to the purchaser in New Zealand. The invoice must include a certificate as to the value of the goods, prepared in prescribed form, and signed by the shipper. Printed blanks for the invoice and certificate can be purchased from printing firms specializing in such supplies.
- The completed invoice must be sent to the addressee by First-Class Mail International. It is desirable to send one copy by air and another by ordinary means.

Substances considered explosive; inflammable or dangerous.

Restrictions

Cosmetics (perfumes, cosmetics, and sanitary products containing alcohol) must be approved by the Technical Alcohol committee.

Importation of radio and telecommunications equipment (equipment like radio remote controls or other wireless systems including walkie-talkies, remote controls, and wireless telephones) is prohibited without the authorization of the Norwegian Telecommunication Regulatory Authority, Oslo. Ordinary TV and radio receivers are exempt from the regulation. Any imported dutiable equipment must be reported to the Norwegian Broadcasting Corporation by the importer.

Medicaments and other products used for medical treatment require authorization by the Ministry of Health. Serum, vaccines, and other bacteriological and serological preparations may be imported by labs and institutes approved by the Norwegian State.

Norwegian bank notes and coins and Norwegian and foreign securities of all kinds require authorization of the national Bank of Norway. Bills for exchange and bank drafts in payment of goods exported from Norway may be imported without prior authorization.

Products of animal origin intended for consumption/use by humans or pet animals are subject to authorization by the Veterinary Department of the Ministry of Agriculture in addition to customs clearance permission. Exception is made for some products. A list can be obtained from the Ministry of Agriculture in Norway.

The importation of firearms, ammunition, and parts of such and other military equipment is subject to the authorization of the Norwegian Police.

Observations

A commercial invoice in duplicate is required for customs clearance of all commercial items.
