Colombia

Country Conditions for Mailing

Prohibitions (130)

Coins; banknotes; currency notes; securities payable to bearer; traveler's checks; manufactured and unmanufactured platinum, gold, and silver; precious stones; jewelry; and other valuable articles.

Many types of goods are prohibited or subject to an import license; therefore, the sender should ascertain from the addressee before mailing whether the contents are permitted and whether the necessary documents are held.

Perishable infectious biological substances.

Perishable noninfectious biological substances.

Radioactive materials.

Restrictions

New and used clothing is permitted when mailed as unaccompanied baggage. The words "Equipaje no acompañado" and the owner's passport number must be shown on the address label and the accompanying documents. Used clothing must have a certificate of disinfection enclosed.

Observations

1. First-Class Mail International items may not contain dutiable articles.
2. Books and other printed matter, if valued over $20, require consular invoices, and the addressees must obtain import licenses.
3. A commercial invoice, numbered, certified and signed by the sender, must accompany each package containing books and periodicals of a commercial nature. In addition, the value of each item, the number of packages comprising the shipment, and gross weight must be shown on the invoice. One copy of the invoice should be sent to the post office of destination. A note must be made on each package of the number of books contained therein, its weight and the total number of packages comprising the shipment.
4. Packages must be addressed directly to the addressee, as the Colombian regulations do not permit customs entry to be effected by anyone except the addressee or an authorized representative.
5. Each shipment valued at $20 or less requires two copies of the sender's commercial invoice, one of which must be enclosed in the parcel and the other sent under separate cover to the addressee. Consular legalization is not needed but the invoice must include a declaration of origin of the merchandise, in Spanish, reading as follows:
 "Certificamos bajo juramento que los precios de esta factura son los mismos que cargamos al cliente y que la mercancía a que se refiere esta misma factura es originaria de (Country of Origin). En fe de lo expuesto firmamos la presente declaración en (City, State) (Day) de (Month) de (Year) (Signature of shipper)".
 (Translation: We certify under oath that the prices in this invoice are the same that we charge our customers, and that the merchandise in this same invoice comes from (Country of origin). In faith of which we sign the present declaration at (City, State), on (Date).

6. For shipments valued over $20, the sender must have a copy of his or her commercial invoice legalized by a Colombian Consulate, and must prepare 4 copies of a consular invoice, one of which must be sent direct to the addressee with the legalized commercial invoice.
7. The addressees in Colombia are required in most cases to obtain import licenses in order to secure delivery of shipments. For shipments exceeding $20 in value the addressee is required to send a copy of the import license to the sender, who must submit it to the Colombian Consul when obtaining the consular invoice. If a sender receives a copy of a Colombian import license for a parcel whose value does not exceed $20, he or she must return it to the addressee in Colombia.
8. Consular invoice forms may be obtained and commercial invoices legalized at Colombian Consulates, which are located in principal cities of the United States.

Cuba

Country Conditions for Mailing

Mail service is limited to First-Class Mail International items, International Priority Airmail (IPA) items, International Surface Air Lift (ISAL) items, and Priority Mail International Flat Rate Envelope and Small Flat Rate Priced Boxes items. Priority Mail International parcel service is not available.

The Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) of the U.S. Department of the Treasury administers sanctions that restrict the mailing of items to certain destinations and recipients, including a broad sanctions program against Cuba. Prior to mailing any items to Cuba, mailers should refer to IMM 510 or access www.treas.gov/ofac for additional information.

In addition, prior to mailing, mailers mailing gift parcels and humanitarian donations must abide by the rules in 15 CFR § 740.12, or with the rules for consumer communications devices, computers, and software in 15 CFR § 740.19, which can be accessed at www.gpoaccess.gov/cfr. The maximum weight is 4 pounds. Potentially dutiable items may be confiscated upon entering Cuba or returned to sender.

Generally (and consistent with 15 CFR § 740.12 and § 740.19), the following standards apply when mailing goods to Cuba:

Gift ParcelsEligible Gift Parcels to Cuba

Eligible gift parcels for Cuba may include any of the following: food (including vitamins); medicines; medical supplies and devices (including hospital supplies and equipment and equipment for the handicapped); receive-only radio equipment for reception of commercial/civil AM/FM and short wave publicly available frequency bands, and batteries for such equipment; clothing; personal hygiene items; seeds; veterinary medicines and supplies; fishing equipment and supplies; soap-making equipment; and all other items of a type normally sent as gifts between individuals (including consumer communications devices, computers, and software as described below and in 15 CFR § 740.19(b)) except for certain items prohibited under U.S. Department of Commerce regulations (described below). Items in gift parcels must be in quantities normally given as gifts between individuals.

Note: A digital camera within the value limit (see "Value" below) may be an appropriate gift. However, subsequent shipments of the same item to the same recipient would not be a gift normally given between individuals.

Note: Even if Commerce Department regulations permit an article to be sent out of the United States in a gift parcel, the article might still be subject to a Cuban import prohibition or other prohibition. Accordingly, articles included in gift parcels may be subject to detention or seizure upon arrival in Cuba.

Export and Shipping Requirements

A gift parcel must be sent directly to the recipient by the individual donor or for such donor by a commercial or other gift-forwarding service or organization. Each gift parcel must show, on the outside wrapper, the name and address of the donor, as well as the name and address of the recipient, regardless of whether sent by the donor or by a forwarding service. Each parcel must have the notation "GIFT—Export License Not Required" written on the address side of the package and the symbol "GFT" written on any required customs declaration.

Prohibited Items

Items not eligible for inclusion in gift parcels as listed in 15 CFR § 740.12(a).

All items included on the Commerce Control List (15 CFR Part 774), other than consumer communications devices, computers, and software.

Military wearing apparel, regardless of whether all distinctive U.S. military insignia, buttons, and other markings are removed.

Gold bullion, gold tael, and gold bars.

Items listed under the general listing of prohibitions below.

Frequency

Except for gift parcels of food, not more than one gift parcel may be sent from the same donor to the same recipient in any one calendar month. There is no frequency limit on gift parcels of food to Cuba.

Parties seeking authorization to exceed the frequency limit due to compelling humanitarian concerns (e.g., for certain gifts of medicine) should submit a license application, with complete justification, to the Commerce Department, Bureau of Industry and Security, in accordance with 15 CFR §§ 748.1, 748.4, and 748.6.

Value

The combined total domestic retail value of all commodities in a single gift parcel may not exceed $800. This limit does not apply to food sent in a gift parcel.

Note: Although Commerce Department regulations provide an $800 maximum limit for these items, the total value for each First-Class Mail International, International Priority Airmail, International Surface Air Lift, and Priority Mail International Flat Rate Envelope and Small Flat Rate Priced Boxes item cannot exceed $400.

Eligible Recipients

A gift parcel may be sent to any individual or a religious, charitable, or educational organization for the use of the recipient or the recipient's immediate family (and not for resale). The gift parcel must be provided free of charge to the recipient. However, payment by the recipient of any handling charges or of any fees levied by Cuba (e.g., import duties, taxes, etc.) is not considered to be a cost to the recipient for purposes of this definition of gift parcel.

Ineligible Recipients

No gift parcel may be sent to any of the following officials of the Cuban government: ministers and vice-ministers; members of the Council of State; members of the Council of Ministers; members and employees of the National Assembly of People's Power; members of any provincial assembly; local sector chiefs of the Committees for the Defense of the Revolution; director generals and sub-director generals and higher of all Cuban ministries and state agencies; employees of the Ministry of the Interior (MININT); employees of the Ministry of Defense (MINFAR); secretaries and first secretaries of the Confederation of Labor of Cuba (CTC) and its component unions; chief editors, editors, and deputy editors of Cuban state-run media organizations and programs, including newspapers, television, and radio; or members and employees of the Supreme Court (Tribuno Supremo Nacional).

No gift parcel may be sent to any of the following officials or members of the Cuban Communist Party: members of the Politburo; the Central Committee; department heads of the Central Committee; employees of the Central Committee; and the secretaries and first secretaries of provincial Party central committees.

No gift parcel may be sent to organizations administered or controlled by the Cuban government or the Cuban Communist Party.

Humanitarian Donations

Eligible Humanitarian Donations to Cuba

Articles eligible for inclusion in humanitarian donation items to Cuba must meet basic human needs, which are defined as those requirements essential to individual well-being: health, food, clothing, shelter, and education. These needs are considered to extend beyond those of an emergency nature and those that meet direct needs for mere subsistence.

Items must be provided free of charge to the beneficiary.

However, the payment by the beneficiary of normal handling charges or fees levied by Cuba (e.g., import duties, taxes, etc.) is not considered to be a cost to the beneficiary.

Eligible commodities and software are those listed in Supplement No. 2 to 15 CFR Part 740: equipment for the handicapped; hospital supplies and equipment; laboratory supplies and equipment; medical supplies and devices; medicine-processing equipment; medicines; vitamins; water resources equipment; food; agricultural materials and machinery suited to small-scale farming operations; agricultural research and testing equipment; fertilizers; fishing equipment and supplies suited to small-scale fishing operations; insecticides; pesticides; seeds; small-scale irrigation equipment; veterinary medicines and supplies; bedding; clothes; cooking utensils; fabric; personal hygiene items; soap-making equipment; weaving and sewing equipment; building materials; hand tools; books; individual school supplies; school furniture; special education supplies and equipment for the handicapped; and generators, office supplies, audio-visual aids for training, and equipment necessary to operate and administer the donative program.

Export and Shipping Requirements

Each humanitarian donation must show on the outside wrapper the name and address of the donor, as well as the name and address of the recipient, regardless of whether sent by the donor or by a forwarding service.

Each parcel must have the notation "GIFT—Export License Not Required" written on the address side of the package and the symbol "GFT" written on any required customs declaration.

Eligible Donors

Eligible donors are U.S. charitable organizations that have an established record of involvement in donation programs and experience in maintaining and verifying a system of distribution to ensure delivery of commodities and software to the intended beneficiaries. The donor organization must keep records containing certain information, in accordance with 15 CFR § 740.12(b)(7).

Eligible Recipients

Humanitarian donations may be sent to groups or organizations that have experience in maintaining a verifiable system of distribution that ensures delivery to intended beneficiaries of items that meet basic human needs.
