Observations

- Import licenses are required for many types of goods. Therefore, senders should ascertain from the addressee before mailing whether the necessary documents are held.
- Licenses are not required for bona fide gifts not exceeding R 200 (Rand) in value.
- The postal administration of Namibia does not deliver mail to street addresses. Therefore, all mailpieces sent to that country must be addressed to a private post office box. This condition of mailing applies to Priority Mail Express International shipments, registered and unregistered First-Class Mail International, First-Class Package International Service, and insured and uninsured parcels that are sent to Namibia.

New Zealand (Includes Cook Islands and Niue)

Country Conditions for Mailing

Prohibitions (130)

Bank notes, coins, and other forms of currency are prohibited in all classes of mail, including registered First-Class Mail International items, First-Class Package International Service items, insured parcels, and Priority Mail Express International shipments, that are sent to New Zealand. Radioactive materials.

Restrictions

Addressees are required to obtain import licenses from the New Zealand customs authorities for all shipments except the following:

Bona fide gifts not exceeding 100 New Zealand dollars in value. Firearms require the addressee has police permission. Meat or meat products and fish and fish products are admitted only conditionally.

Merchandise for the addressee's personal use, not for his or her business or professional use or for sale or trade, and not exceeding 20 New Zealand dollars in value.

Used clothing and used bedding must be for personal use of persons in New Zealand, or with permission of the New Zealand Minister of Customs. Worn out clothing not for personal use must be clean and disinfected, or it will be done at the addressee's expense.

Observations

- Each commercial shipment must be covered by a commercial invoice showing the current domestic price of the goods (that is, what the price would be if sold in the United States) and the selling price to the purchaser in New Zealand. The invoice must include a certificate as to the value of the goods, prepared in prescribed form, and signed by the shipper. Printed blanks for the invoice and certificate can be purchased from printing firms specializing in such supplies.
- The completed invoice must be sent to the addressee by First-Class Mail International. It is desirable to send one copy by air and another by ordinary means.
